Membership Categories and Fees

Alpaca Breeder Membership $100.00 annually

Alpaca breeders who own alpacas and are interested in the furtherance of the alpaca industry are eligible for full membership in the New Mexico Alpaca Breeders on the basis of one membership and one vote per member ranch.

Associate Membership $25.00 annually

For those who have not yet established an alpaca business, but are interested in learning about and supporting North American alpacas, including those who do commerce in the alpaca industry. (Does not include voting privileges).

All members will be listed on the NMAB website. Those with Breeder Member status will be included in the "Find NM Farms" page with a free Openherd account. This will also link to your website. Associate Members will be listed alphabetically with names, business, address and contact information as given on the application.

We invite you to get involved in NMAB. Please let us know which committee(s) interests you.
